PENNIES FOR CHARITY - 2010

Amid the worst economic downturn in years, New Yorkers continue to generously give to charities across the state. Their donations help feed the hungry, care for the sick, and house the homeless. Unfortunately, far too often, only a small percentage of donations raised by telemarketers makes its way to charity. Pennies for Charity, the New York Attorney General's annual report of telemarketing campaigns in New York, shows donors how much of their contributions made in response to telemarketers' calls actually supports charitable programs. It is intended as a tool to help donors decide which charities to support. It can also be used by charities to evaluate a professional fundraiser's performance.

This report is based on financial reports filed by professional fundraisers for telemarketing campaigns conducted during 2009.

FINDINGS

A total of over $213 million was raised on behalf of 434 charities in 2009 by the 590 telemarketing campaigns covered in this report. This amount includes funds raised in New York and other states during fundraising campaigns conducted by telemarketers registered to solicit charitable contributions in New York.

Key findings include:

- In over 78 percent, or 463 of the 590 campaigns, the charities kept less than 50 percent of the funds raised.
- In 291, or 49% of the 590 campaigns, the charities received less than 30 percent of the funds raised.

- In 63 of the 590 campaigns reflected in the report, charities actually lost money.
- In only 49 of the 590 campaigns did the charity retain at least 65 percent of the money raised, the amount deemed acceptable under the Better Business Bureau's standards for charitable organizations.
- In total, 58.26 percent, or $124.2 million, of the funds raised by 83 telemarketers in 2009 was paid to fundraisers for fees and/or used to cover the costs of conducting the campaigns. By comparison, charities retained 41.74 percent, or $89 million, of the total funds raised in the campaigns.

The following table shows the distribution of the funds raised in the 590 telemarketing campaigns of 2009, arranged according to percentage of funds retained by the charity.

* In 63 telemarketing campaigns, the campaign apparently resulted in a loss to the charity. This can occur when the fundraising contract does not guarantee the charity a specific dollar amount or specific percentage of the gross receipts or when the contract does not hold the charity harmless for expenses/fees that exceed the gross amount contributed.

HOW THIS REPORT WAS PREPARED¹

The data in this report was obtained from financial reports filed with the Attorney General's Charities Bureau by professional fundraisers that conducted telemarketing campaigns on behalf of charitable organizations during 2009.² The filings are either closing reports submitted after completion of a telemarketing campaign or interim reports submitted annually for campaigns conducted for a period longer than one year.³ Each filed report is signed by both the professional fundraiser and the contracting charitable organization. All of the charities listed in the report conducted telemarketing fundraising campaigns in New York State.⁴ The figures reported reflect the total amount of money solicited and are not limited to New Yorkers' contributions.

The report consists of seven tables. Table 1 lists the charitable organizations in

² Registration of professional fundraisers is required by Article 7-A of New York State's Executive Law. Registration should not be construed as approval and/or endorsement by the Attorney General of any professional fundraiser or the accuracy and/or completeness of the information contained in any filed financial report.

³ Readers should be aware that the final figures and ratios may change when a campaign has been completed and all income and expenses are reported.

⁴ Information for an additional 27 telemarketing campaigns conducted during 2009 had not been submitted prior to the preparation date of this report.

alphabetical order, the professional fundraisers that conducted each organization's telemarketing campaign, the geographical location of each soliciting charity, whether the filing is an interim or closing report, the total amount raised in each campaign, the amount each charity retained, the amount of uncollected pledges and the percentage of the total raised that each charity retained.

Tables 2 through 4 contain the same information as Table 1, but are organized differently. Table 2 lists the professional fundraisers first, in alphabetical order. Table 3 arranges the information in descending order by the percentage of the total amount raised that was retained by the charitable organizations. Table 4 arranges the information according to geographical location of the charitable organizations.⁵

Table 5 presents, in descending order, the amount raised by each charity in all of its 2009 campaigns, expressed as a percentage of the total amount raised.

Table 6 aggregates the total amount that each professional fundraiser raised in its campaigns in 2009 and the total amount that was retained by its client charities. The table presents the percentage retained by the charity in descending order, starting with the fundraiser whose client charities retained the largest percentage of funds.

Table 7 contains contact information for the professional fundraisers, as provided to the Charities Bureau.

Uncollected pledges are not reported as part of the total amount raised, but are reported in a separate column in each table.⁶ Non-monetary contributions are not covered in this report.

⁵ The areas included in each of the eight geographical areas are described below the graph labeled Locations of Charities Conducting 2009 Telemarketing Campaigns.

⁶ An uncollected pledge is a promised contribution that the charity has not received by the date of filing of a professional fundraiser's financial report. The charity may never receive uncollected pledges. In some campaigns, a donor may agree to pay a specified amount over a period of months or years. Reports of such campaigns will often show a large amount in the "Uncollected Pledges" column and small amounts in the "Net To Charity" and "% To Charity" columns. In each table, a $0.00 in the Uncollected Pledges column indicates that there were no uncollected

TIPS BEFORE GIVING

If you receive a call from a telemarketer, do not feel pressured to give over the phone.

You can just say no! If you choose not to hang up, you should ask the caller:

- What programs are conducted by the charity?
- How much of your donation will be used for charitable programs?
- How much is the telemarketer being paid and how much is the charity guaranteed?

Also, remember:

- Only give to charities with which you are familiar.
- Do not give a credit card number to an unknown caller.
- Screen calls if you wish to avoid answering calls from telemarketers.
- If you receive a call from a telemarketer or directly from a charity, you may ask to be placed on a do-not-call list of a specific charity.

You should also review a charitable organization's annual reports as well as information received directly from the organization before donating. Annual reports for charities registered with the New York State Attorney General may be obtained from the organization or the Charities Bureau.⁷ Filings received by the Charities Bureau since November 15, 2006 are posted on the Attorney General's Internet site at <http://www.charitiesnys.com>. You should also review the Attorney General's Tips on Charitable Giving, which is also available on the Attorney General's Internet site at http://www.charitiesnys.com/guides_advice_new.html.

pledges reported on the respective financial report or that there were no uncollected outstanding pledges as of the date on which the fundraiser filed the report.

⁷ A copy of a registered charity's most recently filed financial report may be obtained by writing to Charities Bureau, Office of the Attorney General, Attention FOIL Section, 120 Broadway, 3rd Floor, New York, New York 10271 or by sending an email request to charities.foil@ag.ny.gov.

A REMINDER FOR CHARITIES

A charitable organization should remember that its most valuable asset is its name. An organization should not jeopardize its reputation by permitting a telemarketer to speak on its behalf without carefully reviewing how the campaign will be conducted and then monitoring the telemarketer's activities. In addition, before engaging a telemarketer, a charitable organization should:

- Review this report and previous Pennies for Charities reports;
- Obtain bids from several telemarketers to maximize the funds available for the organization's charitable programs; and
- Explore other means of raising funds that may be more lucrative.

Charitable organizations should also read the Attorney General's pamphlet, Hiring a Professional Fundraiser: What Charities Need to Know which is posted on the internet at <http://www.charitiesnys.com/pdfs/Hiring%20a%20Professional%20Fundraiser.pdf> Also, an online tutorial on fundraising is available at .
